Citation Alerts

To receive notification when your article has been cited by another INFORMS publication:

1. Login to PubsOnline and navigate to the article for which you wish to set up a Citation Alert. Select Track Citations from the Tools menu on the left side of the screen for that article.

The screenshot shows the article page for "The Beginnings of Operations Research in the United States" by Philip M. Morse, published in Volume 34, Issue 1 of Operations Research in 1986. The left sidebar contains a "Tools" menu with options: View PDF, Add to favorites, Download Citations, Track Citations, Permissions, and Reprints. An orange arrow points to the "Tools" menu. The main content area includes the article title, author name, publication date, and an abstract. The right sidebar shows article information, metrics (Downloaded 2 times, Cited 17 times), and the title.

2. You can manage your Citation Alerts at any time from your Personal Settings page. To reach your Personal Settings, select Profile from the menu that expands beneath your name as shown below.

The screenshot shows the INFORMS PubsOnLine homepage. The top right corner displays the user name "Matthew Walls" with a dropdown menu containing "Profile" and "Logout". An orange arrow points to the user name. The main content area features a banner for "Do General Managerial Skills Spur Innovation?" and a search bar with the text "What Topic Do You Want to Explore Today?". Below the search bar is a section titled "Recognizing Excellence" with a "Read More" link.

3. From the Personal Settings page, select Alerts, then Citation alerts.

The screenshot shows the 'Alerts' management page in the INFORMS PubsOnLine Author Services portal. On the left, a sidebar menu under 'PERSONAL SETTINGS' includes 'Personal Details', 'Manage Subscriptions', 'Activate Access Token', 'Alerts' (highlighted with an orange arrow), 'Favorites', 'Saved Searches', and 'Device Pairing'. The main content area is titled 'Citation alerts' (also highlighted with an orange arrow) and includes instructions: 'To receive citation alerts for an article, go to the article page and click "Track Citation" in the Tools article menu. To disable an alert, check the box next to the alert and click "Delete."'. Below this, there is a table with columns for 'Article Title', 'Publication', and 'Publication Date'. One article is listed: 'A Bucket Indexed Formulation for Nonpreemptive Single Machine Scheduling Problems' from 'INFORMS Journal On Computing VOL. 28, NO. 1' published on '1/21/16 12:00 AM'. A 'Select All' checkbox and a 'Delete' button are at the top of the table. At the bottom of the page is a green banner that says 'Sign Up for INFORMS Publications Updates and News'.

Select any alerts you wish to remove and click Delete or the trashcan icon.

Content Alerts

To receive alerts when new content is published in any INFORMS journal or book series:

1. Login to PubsOnline and select Profile from the menu that expands beneath your name as shown below.

The screenshot shows the INFORMS PubsOnLine homepage. At the top right, the user's name 'Matthew Walls' is displayed with a dropdown menu that includes 'Profile' and 'Logout' (highlighted with an orange arrow). The main banner features the title 'Do General Managerial Skills Spur Innovation?' and a search bar with the text 'What Topic Do You Want to Explore Today?'. Below the banner, there is a section titled 'Recognizing Excellence' which mentions that INFORMS is proud to count 29 of the past 79 recipients of the Nobel Prize in Economics as authors. The page also includes navigation links for 'JOURNALS', 'MAGAZINES', 'PUBLICATIONS', and 'PRICING & SUBSCRIPTIONS'.

2. From the Personal Settings page, select Alerts. Click the checkbox next to all journals and book series for which you wish to receive an alert. Choose the frequency you wish to receive these alerts (daily, weekly, monthly) and the email format (plain text or HTML), then click the Submit button. You can modify your choices at any time using this page.
