

INFORMS Author Portal

INFORMS publishes 16 scholarly journals that focus on the fields of operations research, management science, and analytics. Each journal is peer reviewed and overseen by an editorial board made up of leaders in their respective disciplines.

If your manuscript was accepted for publication or you would like more information on how to prepare a manuscript for submission, you've come to the right place. The INFORMS Author Portal contains the most current information related to review and submission statistics, file preparation, copyright guidelines, rights and permissions, and a comprehensive list of frequently asked questions.

If you do not find the answers you're looking for on the portal and your paper has been accepted, please contact the journal's production editor. If you are interested in submitting to the journal, please visit the editorial sites for complete submission guidelines.
